

Admission requirement for the ECU Construction Management program

The requirements for admission to the construction management program is the same as the requirements for admission to ECU.

The scholastic requirements for full admission are:

- students must have a minimum high school GPA of 2.0 on a 4.0 scale
- meet the college readiness standards in English, Reading, and Math or enroll in courses as directed at the time of registration.
 - Students who do not meet the requirement for full admission may seek enrollment through a Success First Initiative.

For detailed admission requirements, see the ECU 2021-2022 University Catalog

First-Time Freshman Admission Requirements

A student is considered a freshman at ECU, when he or she has: no previous college coursework, or completed college coursework prior to high school graduation, or earned 23 hours or fewer college credits since high school graduation. Below are the requirements for admission to the University as a first-time freshman:

- Standard Admission: high school cumulative GPA (unweighted): 2.50 or higher
- Success First Admission: high school cumulative GPA (unweighted): 2.00-2.49
- All students must have a minimum high school GPA of 2.0 on a 4.0 scale.

While test scores are not required for admissions purposes, students are encouraged to submit test scores for proper course placement in English and mathematics courses.

Transfer Student Admission Requirements

A transfer student has earned 23 or fewer hours of college work since high school graduation or has earned 24 or more semester hours at another institution.

The scholastic requirement for admission as a transfer student is a cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 2.0 on a 4.0 scale. Students must be in good academic and financial standing at their previous institution.

Students who have earned 23 hours or fewer of college credits after high school graduation must also provide a final high school transcript and meet the requirements for incoming freshmen. To be admitted as a transfer student, you must submit a final official transcript from each institution accredited by an agency recognized by the U.S. Department of Education you have attended.

Note: transcripts must be sent from the student's institution to ECU's Office of Admissions. Hand-carried transcripts will not be accepted.
